Rosecrance Prevention and Early Intervention Program (PEI)

The Rosecrance PEI Program is an evidence-based alcohol and drug education program designed to provide education, support, and direction to teens and their families who may be at risk of more serious involvement with alcohol and other drugs.

Who would benefit from the program?
- Increase in school disciplinary actions or school referral
- Lower than expected grades
- Decreased interest in hobbies or participation in virtual learning
- Increased absenteeism, isolation
- Use or suspected use of alcohol, vapes, or other drugs
- Dishonesty in response to questions about substance use (or friends’ use)
- Less time at home, secrecy or evasiveness concerning whereabouts and activities
- Unreasonable insistence to hang out with friends during the COVID shut down
- Signs of being under the influence – odor on breath or clothes, unusual smells (skunk like or fruity), altered
- Extreme mood changes
- Altered sleeping schedule
- Breaking rules
- Secretive phone calls and texts
- Noticeable change in friends over a short period of time

What are the components of the program?
The PEI Program for teens consists of up to 10 hours of programming including:
- A comprehensive assessment (required)
- Three class sessions [parent(s)/guardian(s) attend session three]
- Urine screen (if recommended)
- An individualized exit interview held with the student and parent(s)/guardian(s)

What information is provided in the program?
Participation in the Rosecrance PEI Program classes will increase awareness and understanding of the effects of adolescent drug and/or alcohol use, abuse and dependence on youth and their families.
