

Rosecrance Chicagoland

Leaders in recovery.
Champions of hope.

Rosecrance, a private, not-for-profit organization, offers a full continuum of substance use prevention, early intervention and treatment services, and mental health counseling under the guidance of our quality, caring team of behavioral health professionals. Our programs provide evidence-based therapies in an environment that fosters lasting recovery. Rosecrance has convenient locations across Chicagoland offering free, confidential consultations.

Rosecrance Chicagoland

Our Chicagoland locations allow individuals and their families to easily enter the Rosecrance care continuum that includes treatment at all levels including residential, partial hospitalization, outpatient, and continuing care. Our evidence-based family programming provides guidance and support to families as they seek to navigate the challenges of their loved ones' behavioral health challenges. Our virtual outpatient services and supportive programs also put hope within reach for clients who may prefer the additional convenience and confidentiality of this option.
